

December 10, 2015

The following was sent to KYAE listserv.

In Session: 5 Things To Know About The New Publisher Program

FYI ... Some good stuff to know!

Do your materials cover the content students need? View in browser.

December 2015

The Tutorial Students Need To See Before They Test

Are your students familiar with the computer-based format of the GED test? Make sure they're confident and prepared with the Computer-Based Testing Tutorial ...

Read More

GED Program Updates

- The GED Ready Offline practice test for corrections is now available! Corrections facilities that are unable to administer traditional GED Ready practice tests can order the offline practice test at GEDMarketplace.com/GEDROffline. Be sure to review the product details - especially the "Requirements" and "How It Works" sections - to find out if it's right for you. Contact communications@GEDtestingservice.com with questions.
- Starting in January, educators will order all GED Testing Service marketing materials using our online fulfillment center.

Educator Tip: Preparing Students For The Math Test

"I like to encourage people to change their lives through their studies," says Rafael Duque, site coordinator with the Dallas Independent School District. Originally from Colombia, he came to the United States in 2000 with ...

Read More

NOW ON-DEMAND

Exploring Enduring Issues and Making Connections in Social Studies

FREE educator webinar

WATCH IT NOW

Hear From A Graduate

Jairo V., California graduate

"Well, the reason I took the GED [test] was because I stopped going to high school for a year and a half. I didn't go to school because I got tired of moving so much and being the awkward new guy in every school. I returned to high school in 11th grade ... but when I got to my senior year, I didn't have enough credits to graduate ..."

Read More

Connect with us:

